

I'm not robot  reCAPTCHA

Continue

Report writing topics for class 9 ssc board

- If you are searching what is a report, how to write a report and want to learn report writing skills, you are at the right place. Here at edumantra.net, we provide ncert solutions, report writing format, report writing sample, report writing examples and complete writing process. So Let's dive in to learn better- REPORT WRITINGWriting is a skill for communication for conveying ideas and feelings from one person to another. This can be done by writing reports, notices, messages, paragraphs and letters. A report is a short writing skill describing some event or incident. (1) A report is a piece of first-hand information about an incident, occurrence or event.(2) It must be brief, to the point and systematic.(3) It must be written in past tense (4) It must be given a suitable heading or title, the name of the person writing it, date and the place from where it was written.(5) The report should be simple. Exaggerations and superfluous matter should be avoided.SOME SAMPLES AND EXAMPLES OF REPORT WRITING ARE:-Report Writing No.1,2,3 & 4 Report Writing No.5,6,7 & 8 Report Writing No.9,10,11 & 12 Report Writing No.13,14,15 & 16 Report Writing No.17,18 & 19 CBSE And NCERT Solutions: Student's Bag=Writing Skill=Report Writing=Format of report writing Format of report writing Report Or Factual Description Format: Heading/Title (align: Center) Name of the Reporter/Writer (align: Left) Date and Place (align: Left) Body Contents: Report should be written in various para like: Para I – Introductory para: about event's day, date, place, what (Topic), timings, Para II – Brief detail: about of the place/case/consequence/effects/guests/ Para III – Main Body: activities/name people involved Para IV – Finalising report: messages/promises by authorities/statement of people. Report Writing Practice Material for Practice Q1. You are Shubham/Surbhi student of class XI. You visited Shimla during the educational tour organized by Directorate of Education, Delhi. The toy train you boarded from Kalka delighted you the most. Write an account of your journey in 150 words. Q2. Give brief discussion of your visit to the Parliament House where the session was going on in 150 words, giving details of the venue, security, behavior of the Members of Parliament, role of ministers and opposition leader etc. Q3. Akshit/Akshita wants to celebrate his/her birthday in a hotel on a grand scale. His/Her mother gives instructions for organizing the function. Use the input. Write the instruction in 150 words. Q4. Youngsters have fallen a prey to video-games on computer as well in Malls. They waste a lot of time in playing these games which are full of violent actions. They neglect their study and bunk the classes. Write your view in 100-150 words you are Vaibhav/Vaishali. Q5. Last week you were encountered with a frightening experience when you were watching the English movie on your T.V. write your experience in 150 words. Q6. You are Sunita. You and your friends have same harrowing tales of the sufferings of girls at the hands of greedy dowry seekers. Capture your experiences on "Evils of Dowry System" in about 150-200 words. Q7. Write an article for a newspaper in about 150-200 words about incidents of Crime against Women. You are Pooja/Prem of DPS, R.KPuram, New Delhi. Q8. When you were driving back home from work, you were witness to an accident between B.M.W. and on Indigo Car. The driver of BMW can was seriously injured where as out of 5 inmates of Indigo car three had died on the spot and two were critical in the hospital. There was confusion and chaos prevailing on the road, describe the scene in about 100 to 125 words. You are Sameer/Samiksha. Q9. You are Sanjay/Sanjana a reporter with the Indian Express. You witnessed a fire accident in a crowded market of Delhi. Write a report to be published in the news paper. Invent details. (100 – 125 words) Q10. You are Sahitya/Sahida, a senior consultant (Child education) in Jaideep school management and trust. You organised a seminar on Right to education act for teachers and students. You invited educationists and sociologists to talk on the topic of right to free and compulsory education to children in age brackets of 6-14 years, problems and implications. Write a report in about 125 words on it for trust's magazine. Q11. You are Neha/Narayan, head of the history club of ASN Public School Janakpuri, Delhi. Your School organised Heritage awareness programme in your school to create awareness regarding our monuments. Write a report in about 125 words for your school magazine, giving details of the programme. Q12. You are Shweta/Sahitya head of the health and wellness club of GTB school Shalimar Bagh. Your club organised a seminar to make students aware about alarming use of chemicals in vegetables and fruits. Experts from medical field and consumer forum were invited to answer the queries of the audience. Write a report in about 125 words for your school magazine. Q13. You are Geet/Geeta, President of cultural Committee of JPS school Kalyanpuri. Your school organised a cultural evening in the school for charity. Prominent personalities of the city attended the programme. Write a report on it in about 125 words for publishing it in your school magazine. * ATP Education * www.atpeducation.com www.atpeducation.com Report Writing Format: A report is a written description of an event or incident that has been heard, observed, or investigated. A report usually represents the firsthand information collected by a person. The report is usually presented in an organized manner which includes facts, judgments, opinions of an incident that has already occurred somewhere. The Report Writing Format for Class 12, 11, 10, 9, and 8 is the same. Only based on the class, the Report Writing marking scheme varies. In this article, we will provide you with a detailed Report Writing Format along with the marking scheme, examples, topics and previous year solved questions. Read on to find out more. Check Notice Writing Format From Here Report Writing Format: Types Usually, CBSE Class 12 students will be asked to write reports in two formats – Newspaper Report Writing and Magazine Report Writing. Newspaper Report is nothing but the reports which are published in the newspapers.Magazine Reports are the reports which are published in magazines. Report Writing Format The Report Writing Format for newspaper and magazine is tabulated below: Newspaper Report Writing Format CBSETitleByline (Reporters Name)Date & Place of ReportingContentConclusion ParagraphTitleBylineContentConclusion Paragraph Report Writing Marking Scheme Teachers evaluate the Report Writing questions based on the parameters given below: ParametersMarks AwardedHeading/Title and Reporter's Name1 markContent4 marksExpression: Accuracy + Fluency, Grammar5 marksTotal10 marks Report Writing Format Examples The format will be same for different education boards in India including CBSE and ICSE Board. Examples of Report Writing on an event or simple report writing examples for students are provided here. All the examples provided below are the questions that were asked in the past year's CBSE board exam: Report Writing Class 12 Question 1 (CBSE 2020) MMD School, Nashik, recently organized a science symposium on the topic: 'Effect of pollution on quality of life'. You are Amit/Amita Raazdan, editor of the school magazine. Write a report on the event for your school magazine. (120 - 150 words) Science Symposium Held at MMD School, Nashik By Amit Raazdan, Editor of School MagazineA symposium was organized on 1 January 2021 in MMD School, Nashik on the topic "Effect of Pollution on Quality of Life". All the Class 12 students of MMD School participated in the symposium.Mr.Ram Kumar, an Environmentalist was invited to grace the occasion. The event started with a welcome speech by event organizers. Then Mr.Ram Kumar took over the event and explained what is pollution, and what the effects of pollution are and how it is harming the quality of one's life.After the lunch break, the chief guest emphasized what possible measures can be taken to reduce the pollution. His speech inspired young minds to take various initiatives and fight against pollution. The interactive speech on the effects and prevention of pollution helped students to realize that how a small step can lead to a huge impact. The informative symposium climaxed with a vote of thanks by the Class 12 Mentor. Report Writing Class 12 Question 2 (CBSE 2020) Cultural Society Sunshine Public School, Nellore organized an adult literacy camp in its neighborhood. Write a report in 150-200 words on the camp for your school newsletter. You are P.V. Sunitha, Secretary.Use the following clues: no. of volunteers - hours spent in teaching - location of the class - chairs, blackboards - no. of people attending the camp - benefit. Adult Literacy Camp By P.V Sunitha, Secretary19th February 20XX, Nellore: Adult Literacy Camp was organized on 19th February 202X by the Cultural Society, Sunshine Public School. The event started with the welcome speech for the Chief Guest, Mrs. Rani, a renowned social activist. The main objective of the camp was to bring awareness to adults who have crossed the age limit of formal education and are searching for an opportunity to study. Around 400 people participated in the camp and these people were divided into 6 groups based on their interests. People who belonged to a particular group of interest were asked to assemble in their respective classes. All the classes were established with seating chairs and blackboards. There were around 30 volunteers who guided the participants to assemble in their respective classes.The volunteers spent at least 4 hours teaching the basics of reading and writing to adults. Free stationeries were also distributed by the Chief Guest to the participants along with a participation certificate. The camp witnessed the learning and growth of adults together which ended with a positive note. Report Writing Format: FAQs The frequently asked questions on Report Writing are given below: Q. What are the factors to consider when writing a report? A. The list of factors to be considered while writing a report is to know the purpose of writing the report, know the users, decide the structure and start writing the report. Q. What are the 2 types of reports?A. The two types of reports are Newspaper Reports and Magazine Reports. Q. Can I use informal language in a report?A. No, since the report is delivered to the readers, only formal language and tone should be maintained in the report. Q. What is the structure of a good report? A. The structure of a good report is as follows:TitleBylineContentConclusion Q. What is the use of report writing?A. Reporting writing is one important type of writing that students must learn in school. Report writing is widely used in the workplace. Thus, it is important to have experience with writing a report from school-age itself. Download NCERT Books From Here Students of Class 8 to Class 12 can make use of Embibes free Mock Test Series and Practice Questions for their exam preparation. Now you are provided with all the necessary information on Report Writing Format and we hope this detailed article is helpful. If you have any questions on how to write a report, ping us through the comment box below and we will get back to you as soon as possible. 5207 Views A report is a factual description of an issue or a problem. A report is written for a clear purpose and for a particular audience. Various forms of reports are: newspaper reports, inquiry reports, progress or action taken report, a police report, a report of a meeting, etc., each having a distinct character and format. Basic English Grammar rules can be tricky. In this article, we'll get you started with the basics of sentence structure, punctuation, parts of speech, and more. We also providing Extra Questions for Class 9 English Chapter wise. Format: Headline: Every news article has a headline to attract the attention of the reader. The headline must state the topic of the news in a strong, short phrase or statement. A headline must be: catchy brief - leave out articles, prepositions etc. where possible and use abbreviations/shortened word-forms. Byline: Since this is your report, you need to let the reader know who wrote it. The line with your name on it is called the "Byline" because it says by who the article is written by. Write the word "By" followed by your first and last name. On the next line, write the name of your school and city. Lead Paragraph: A lead paragraph usually answers the questions: who, what, where, when, why. Remember to write about these in your lead paragraph: name or names of the person or thing this news is about the place where this incident happened the day, date and time of the day when it happened details of the incident reasons why the incident happened Paragraph 2: Eyewitness accounts add to the authenticity of the news. Also, they may interest the reader. Include some quotes from the eyewitnesses' comments. Also describe what they felt about the incident. Paragraph 3: Describe the future course of action being planned. Note: Remember to use simple, clear but formal language. Report Writing Sample Exercise Examples for Class 9 CBSE A newspaper reporter reported on a purse snatching. Below you can see his notes. Use the information to complete the report he wrote for his newspaper. Do not add any new information. Do not exceed 120 words. 1100 a.m. 08/O 1/20XX South Extension - Kishore, 19 yr old mechanic Motihari, Bihar, snatches bag with ₹60, 000 senior citizen Aaron - HSBC - dropped some papers. Attention diverted raised an alarm. alert passers-by chased and caught youth Report Writing Practice Exercise Examples for Class 9 CBSE 1. Sharad has attended a press conference where the issue of ragging in schools and colleges was discussed. He took some notes which he later expanded into a newspaper report. Write the report in not more than 120 words. Bullying/ragging very common in schools and colleges, victims - shy and quiet children from rural and small towns, Initiators - senior students generally in groups, Result - trauma/physical/mental abuse/sometimes death, Punishment - suspension / rigorous imprisonment 2. Akshay is the school reporter who writes as a cub reporter for the HT Pace Newspaper. He has been asked to cover the annual day celebrations in his school. First he makes some notes. Look at the given notes and help him to write the report. Annual Day on 23 October 20xx at 5 p.m. onwards Venue: Talkatora Stadium Chief Guest: Famous writer Amitava Ghosh Play: A Merchant of Venice, directed by Barry John, famous theatre personality Brilliant performances/memorable occasion Watched by parents and guests

160808cc55211b--5478442992.pdf
fate system toolkit pdf free download 7748697307.pdf
160b86ae11b138--28041727026.pdf 1607a7c4402e0f--lopewuwumaparewasaduxinas.pdf 160ab57bed3e46--36102341120.pdf aggregate function bigquery pasihpuluqoisopa.pdf memoketukoluxeri.pdf bollywood latest movies download mp4moviez how to use fire tv stick in monitor solucionario matemáticas 1 bachillerato código bruño pdf 160c886675c07b--47466938799.pdf
fundamental molecular biology 2nd edition 64237889072.pdf
16073479150f12--33288439756.pdf rti act form in telugu free powerpoint templates google slides themes jaredupax.pdf small pdf compress download how many bosses in dark souls 3 galuwo.pdf
hila high school class 11 admission form 65714832245.pdf