

I'm not robot!

Like most traditional songs that have been passed down from generation to generation and represents the heritage of a country. It is often sung and interpreted by musicians who may or may not have been trained. The tools commonly used in the genre include psarmonics, banjos and harmonics. Composers such as Percy Grainger, Zoltan Kodaly and Bela Bartok were passionate collectors of popular songs. The individual songs may not have been written immediately when composed for the first time and the author could be lost over time, making many versions of beloved melodies. A particular version of a song can be well known when a popular artist records ... or when versions are collected by archivists and historians on the field, such as Alan Lomax in the 1930s and 1940s, and those recordings are released. In many cases, folk songs came from existing philanthropists or poems, and some of the philanthropists had variations, depending on the region or time. Therefore, these popular songs can have slightly different texts from those you are familiar with. Musical educational methods such as Orff and Kodaly - use popular songs to teach important concepts, promote musicality and respect the musical heritage. Here are 19 popular folk songs for children, along with their lyrics and scores, for learning and singing together. Tom Stewart / Getty Images "Aiken Drum" is a Scottish folk song and a rhyme that probably comes from "Aikendrum", a Jacobite song on the sheriff's battle. Alternative versions of the song have different foods for clothing pieces, such as hat, shoes, trousers and shirt or instruments that played. "Alouette" is a French-Canadian folk song to pinch the feathers of a lark after being woken up by his song (as we would have threatened a cock or chicken, before cooking and eating the bird). French texts and English translation follow. AloUette, Gentille Alouettealouette je te Plumeraiouette, Gentille Alouettealouette je te Plumeraije te Plumeraije teteje teteje teteet teteet la tie, et la tetealouette, alouette-o-o-obalouette, Gentille Alouette, nice (adorable) To tear your head off, I will tear your head, and the head and head, O-O-O-O-OH "A-Tasket A-Tasket" was made in America and used as a basis for a 1938 Ella Fitzgerald Registration. Recorded for the first time at the end of the 19th century, this song was a rhyme game for children singing while children danced in circles. A-tasket a-tasketa-lasket a-tasketa green and yellow dears wrote a letter to my love on the way I dropped it. I dropped it, I dropped it and along the way I dropped it. A boy chose Usand by putting him in his pocket. In some variations, the last two lines were "a girl who picked him up/her on the market." "Baa Baa Black Sheep" was originally an English philanthropist who, in spoken form, mayalready in 1731. Baa, baa, black sheep, do you have wool? Sissignor, sissignor, three full bags. One for the owner, one for the dam, and one for the child lives along the lane. Famous French nursery rhyme "Frère Jacques" is traditionally played in a round and translates into "Brother John" in English. Fräolaso Jacques, Fräolaso Jacques, Dormaz Vous? Do you sleep vous? Sonnez Les Matines, Sonnez Les Matines Ding Ding Dong, Ding Ding Dong Dormi. Do you sleep? Brother John, brother John? The morning bells are playing, the morning bells play ding ding dong, ding ding dong. Similar to "The Wheels on the bus", the nursery rhyme "Here We Go Round the Mulberry Bush" is also a singing game for children. To play, the children keep their hands and move in a circle with alternating verses. Here we go around the mulberry bush, the mulberry bush, the mulberry bush. Here we go around the mulberry bush in the morning. This is the way we wash our face, tear our face, tease our face. This is the way we wash our face is soon in the morning. This is the way we comb our hair, comb our hair, comb our hair. This is the way we comb our hair is soon in the morning. This is the way we wash our teeth, we tighten our teeth, we tighten our teeth. The meaning of the song translates into "until suddenly ran away". Round and around the shoemaker bench (or all around the frost bush) the monkey chased the donor, the monkey thought "two in Funpo! Donnola goes. One cent for a thread penny reel for a needle, that's how money goes, pop! Donnola goes. "Ring Around the Rosie" appeared for the first time in print in 1881, but it was reported that it had already been sung in a version near the current one in 1790. It is probably just an urban legend that is plague; It is more likely that the song was for a "ring game" that the children played, while the melody is sung while the children hold hands and turn around, then fall to the ground on the last line. Ring around the pocket of Rosiea full of posie; Ashesall stop. The king sent his daughter, to take a bucket of water; Ashesall falls. Theorized as a song rising from American Minstrelsy, the song for children and the row of the row "Row Row Your Boat" is often sung as rounds and sometimes includes the play action of the row. The song was created in 1852 and the contemporary recording was created in 1881. Row, Row, Row Your Boacent down the stream. Thousands, cheerfully, cheerfully, life is only a dream. Carl Sandburg published "She Will Comin 'Round the Mountain" in 1927. This traditional popular song is also used as a children's song and originally comes from the Christian song ", when the wagon arrives".
