Ideally, I would like all the toolbars to sprasse similar to how they do in QuickTime. See the images: is there a solution of the kind available? 7 Go to full screen is fantastic. but I didn't understand how to hide the cards and the browser URL. It is consuming space on the precious screen. 0 There is a way to open the card in Google Chrome / Chromium with minimum layout (without cards, bars, address bar) so you can watch YouTube videos in a small window with edges only? Is there a shortcut to move from this mode or extension to do it? 0 0.
