

Death notices san luis obispo ca

Jim will be cremated; no services are planned in Cambria. A memorial service will be held on Oct. 16 in Boise. If desired, a donation may be made to the American Diabetes Association or to the Shriners Hospitals. WHITACRE, DAVID RALPH David Ralph Whitacre 71 of Nipomo died Tuesday Nov.3 six weeks after being diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. Dave retired as Director of Operations with U. S News and World Report magazine. His 22 years of retirement were spent playing golf with his family. He is survived by his wife of 50 years Marilyn, daughter Lori(Mike) Bickel of Atascadero, a son Keith of Nipomo. Two grandchildren Alexa and Aaron. A sister Patricia Rhinehart of Centerville, Ohio. His parents deceased were Erna and Ralph Whitacre of Dayton, Ohio. At his request there will be no service and cremation has taken place. Donations can be made to Woods Humane Society. [Unknown Newspaper, 2009. Submitted by Marilyn Boyer Whitacre.] Source: San Francisco Bulletin (Wednesday, 29 Apr. 1874) transcribed by FoFG mz DIED. In San Luis Obispo county, April 13th, Eva daughter of James L. and Ruthyan Kester, aged 4 yrs. Source: San Francisco Bulletin (Wednesday, 27 Aug. 1873) transcribed by FoFG mz DIED At Huasna Rancho, San Luis Obispo co., August 13, George, infant son of Daniel Rice, aged 15 months. Source: San Francisco Bulletin (Wednesday, 1 July 1874) transcribed by FoFG mz DIED In San Luis Obispo, June 23, Blas A. Castro, aged 58 years. Source: San Jose Mercury News (Saturday, 27 Feb. 1915) transcribed by FoFG mz DIED In San Luis Obispo, June 23, Blas A. Castro, aged 58 years. Source: San Jose Mercury News (Saturday, 27 Feb. 1915) transcribed by FoFG mz DIED In San Luis Obispo, Cal., February 26, 1915, Mrs. E. B. Smith, formerly Mrs. John Biddle of San Jose, mother of Phillip, George, Minnie and John S. Biddle and David Smith, a native of Indiana, aged 48 years. Source: San Jose Mercury News (Saturday, 1 May 1920) transcribed by FoFG mz DIED. In Paso Robles, Cal., April 29, 1920, Thomas S. K. Burnight, beloved husband of Annie Burnight, a native of Iowa, aged 50 years, 9 months and 10 days. A member of Abell Lodge, No. 148 F. & A.M., Ukiah, Calif. Friends are invited to attend the funeral Monday, May 8, 1920, at 3 o'clock p.m. from the mortuary chapel of the W. L. Woodrow Co., corner of Second and San Carlos streets. Internment in Oak Hill Cemetery. Source: San Jose Mercury News (Thursday, 7 Feb. 1918) transcribed by FoFG mz Mr. and Mrs. Ed Baker and daughter left for San Luis Obispo, where they went to attend the funeral of Mrs. Baker's father, Angus M. Hardie. Mr. Hardie died at midnight Tuesday. Funeral services will be held Friday morning. Decedent had relatives and many friends in San Jose. He has visited here on several occasions. Source: San Jose Mercury News (Saturday 13 Apr. 1907) transcribed by FoFG mz SAN LUIS OBISPO, April 12. - Judge Venable, a prominent lawyer and president of the Commercial Bank of this city, died this morning after several weeks' illness. Source: Tribune (San Luis Obispo, CA) - February 1, 2006; submitted by Marla Zwakman Margaret Brewen-Hansen, a longtime resident of San Miguel, passed away Saturday, Jan. 28, 2006, at Twin Cities Community Hospital. Visitation will be from 4 to 7 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 2, 2006, at Kuehl-Nicolay Funeral Home, and then again from 9 a.m. to noon Friday, Feb. 3, at San Miguel District Cemetery. A B.B.Q. luncheon will follow at the San Miguel Senior Citizen Center. She was born in Sandstone, Minn., on March 21, 1915, to Jacob and Adra Feyma. She was the fifth of seven children. The Feyma family move from Minnesota to Ventura, Calif. when Margaret was eight years old. She lived in Ventura until she met and married Chet Brewen. Three of their children were born in Ventura before moving to San Miguel in 1944. The last two were born in Paso Robles. Margaret owned and operated a restaurant in San Miguel for 35 years. She and her family were very involved in the community. All six of her children were graduates of Paso Robles High School. In 1966, she married Clarence Hansen. They were married until his death in 1969. She continued to operate the restaurant until 1978. At that time, she closed it down and retired. Needing something to do, she became involved in the Senior Citizens Center in San Miguel. She loved playing cards and bingo. In 1995, she was the Queen for the Sagebrush Days in San Miguel. Margaret was very proud of all her family. She clipped and kept every newspaper article about her family, from the children to the great-grandchildren. At her 90th birthday party, all of the memorabilia she had saved over the years was put on display. The party was the highlight of her life. She was very happy to see and talk to so many friends and family at one time. Margaret loved a good party She liked feeding everyone and anyone. There was always an extra place at the table. Margaret was preceded in death by her Mama and Papa; all of her brothers and sisters, Francis Vork, Elizabeth Vervoon, Martin Feyma, Clarence Feyma, John Feyma, and Adelaide Arney; her son Joe Brewen; grandsons Kevin Brewen, Leon Mumford and Bobby Hansen. Margaret is survived by her daughter Adranna and Bob Hansen, daughter Janice Kay Mumford, son Clifford and Elethea Brewen, son John Brewen, son John Brewen, son John Brewen, daughter in-law Sheila Brewen; grandchildren Howard and Delonna Brewen, Laura and Paul Carter, Charlene and Charlie Smith, Marlene and Ross Rianda, Wanda Mumford, Chet Mumford, Carl and Cheryl Mumford, Gary Brewen, RayAnne Brewen, Eldalee and Andrew Hernandez, C.J. Brewen, Jennifer and Todd Miller, Heather and D.C. Felciano; great-grandchildren Karl Spagnola, Collin Mumford, Justin Davis, Travis Davis Amanda Mumford, Chester Mumford, Kandra Mumford, Joseph Mumford, Blake Brewen, Lacey Hernandez, Santiago Hernandez, Jami Smith, Carli Smith, Ryle Smith, Ryle Smith, Ryle Smith, Blake Brewen, Lacey Hernandez, Jamie Middagh, John Brewen Middagh, Emily Brewen, Sarah Brewen. Her last great-grandchild was born Jan. 12, 2006, Katherine Brewen "Baby Kate." Kuehl-Nicolay Funeral Home Source: San Jose Mercury News (San Jose, CA) Saturday, 19 Oct. 1907; transcribed by FoFG mz DIED. In San Luis Obispo, October 17, 1907, Virginia L., Relict of the late B. G. Latimer and mother of B. G. Latimer, Jr. and Eva K., Garrison of San Luis Obispo, Elizabeth V. Call of Campbell, Katherine A. Blair of San Francisco and Louisa L. Reid of San Jose, a native of Baltimore, Md., aged 80 years. Funeral today at 2:30 p.m. Internment at Santa Clara. Source: Evening News (San Jose, CA) Tuesday, 15 Oct. 1912; transcribed by FoFG mz DIED In San Luis Obispo, Oct. 14, 1912, William R. Tilman, aged 38 years. Source: Evening News (San Jose, CA) Tuesday, 6 Aug. 1912; transcribed by FoFG mz DIED. In San Luis Obispo, August 3, 1912, Alfred Edmund Stonier, a native of Berryessa, aged 47 years. Source: Evening News (San Jose, CA) Tuesday, 6 Aug. 1912; transcribed by FoFG mz DIED. In San Luis Obispo, August 3, 1912, Alfred Edmund Stonier, a native of Berryessa, aged 47 years. Source: Evening News (San Jose, CA) Tuesday, 6 Aug. 1912; transcribed by FoFG mz DIED. DIED. In San Luis Obispo, June 15, 1899, Dr. H. J. Borde, formerly of this city, aged 37 years. Carrie LaVurn Willhoit, died at a skilled care facility in Gresham, Ore., of complications from a recent surgery, Tuesday, Aug. 8, 2000, at the age of 86. Because of health problems, she had moved to Oregon seven years ago to be near her youngest daughter, Mary. A graveside service will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. at Templeton Cemetery. Born Dec. 29, 1913 in Sidney, Ohio, to Henry and Vera Ordean, Mrs. Willhoit moved to California in the late 1920s with her family and resided in the Glendale-Burbank area. While living in Southern California, she married Spencer Vick in 1936 and they had two daughters. In the mid-1940s, the family moved to Santa Margarita and resided there for about 10 years. She was employed by the Roy Chandler Hat Factory in Santa Margarita. Spencer Vick died in 1950. In 1954, she married Tom Willhoit of Templeton, to whom she was married for 10 years. Mrs. Willhoit moved to Atascadero during the 1970s and resided there until her retirement. She loved to travel and work on her family's genealogy, take trips in her camper-pickup or van across the States to locate family history. She was a member of the AARP in Atascadero where she enjoyed playing cards and was also active in working with the election committee. She attended Atascadero Gospel Chapel and enjoyed going camping at Hume Lake Christian Camp. When she moved to Oregon, she resided in a retirement complex until her health made it necessary to move briefly to an adult foster care home. She then lived with her daughter, Mary, for three years, and for the past three years are homes due to increased health problems. grandchildren and six great-grandchildren, a nephew, a grand nephew and a grand niece. She was preceded in death by a brother, Jacque Ordean. The family suggests that any donations be made to the Diabetes Association. Jose Castillo Jose M. Castillo, 84, died Friday, Aug. 11, 2000, at his Guadalupe residence. Visitation is Wednesday from 5 p.m. until recitation of a rosary beginning at 7 p.m. at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church, 1164 Obispo St. in Guadalupe. A Mass will be celebrant. Mr. Castillo was born June 12, 1916, in Ed Couch, Texas, to Divorcio and Natividad Castillo. He was raised in Texas, remaining there until moving to the Central Coast of California, where he settled in Nipomo, eventually moving to Guadalupe 40 years ago. A self-educated man, he worked as a laborer, as a cook and in the sanitation department at Vandenberg Air Force Base. Also a former mechanic's diploma in 1961. He was an avid gardener and loved to read. A devoted Catholic, Mr. Castillo was active in Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. He enjoyed being with his family. He is survived by his wife of 64 years, Sinforosa "Rosie" Castillo, whom he married July 24, 1936, in Texas; and children Jacinto and wife Maria Castillo of Mexico, Conception and wife Antonia Castillo of Texas, Josephine and husband Steve Paduganun of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Maria, Jamie Beatrice and husband Raul Gauna of Santa Armondo Ruiz of Fresno, Angelita and husband Juan Mendez of Oceano, Peter and wife Debbie Castillo of Santa Maria, Sylvia and husband Ronnie Escarzaga of Santa Maria, Martin Castillo of Hanford, David and wife Maria Castillo of Santa Maria, Maria Elena and husband Robert Ortiz of Guadalupe and Rene and wife Mary Lou Castillo also have raised five grandchildren. Additional survivors include 87 grandchildren, 91 great-grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by twin children, Santos and Santos Castillo, in 1982. Arrangements are by Magner-Maloney Funeral Home in Santa Maria. Mae Goesling died Saturday, Aug. 12, 2000, at her San Luis Obispo home at age 84. Visitation is from 1 to 3 p.m., at Reis Chapel in San Luis Obispo. Mrs. Goesling was born May 6, 1916, in Sophia Valley, N.M., the second of 14 children born to Elmer Depue and Nellie Pearl Robertson. She was married Jan. 4, 1936, to Ed Goesling. Mr. Goesling, her husband of almost 60 years, preceded her in death. They made their home in San Francisco for nearly 50 years before she moved to San Luis Obispo to be near her niece, Corene Deming and her husband Michael Deming, and great-nephew Mark Canaan, his wife, Rozella Packard Canaan and their five children. Mrs. Goesling played an active role in her niece and great-nephew's family life; baby-sitting and holding slumber parties for the younger children were commonplace An avid bowler and an excellent cook, Mrs. Goesling loved gardening and had a green thumb. Around her home in San Francisco in the heart of the Mission district, she displayed much of her ability in horticulture. Mrs. Goesling also enjoyed her work with the Silver Streaks. She was preceded in death by sisters Margaret, Mable, Lorene, Erma, Elnora, Charlott and Lois; and a brother, Billy. She is survived by sisters Edna Barnes, Frankie Miller, Elsie Lawhon and Dolly Cooper; brothers Carrel Depue and Clarence Depue; and numerous nieces and nephews. William Margaroli, county native William Margaroli, a native and former longtime resident of San Luis Obispo, died Friday, Aug. 11, 2000, in Redwood City at age 79. A memorial service will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday at Menlo Park. Mr. Margaroli was retired from United Airlines, and enjoyed tennis, gardening and reading. He was a member of S.I.R.S. He is survived by his wife, Joyce Margaroli of Redwood City; children Gail Ann Margaroli and Patricia Jean Bentley; and grandchildren Rachael and John Bentley. Memorial contributions are by Woodside Chapel of Crippen & Flynn in Redwood City. Herbert Bjork Bjork, 82, of Cambria died Sunday, Oct. 29, 2000, at his residence. A memorial service will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses at 2680 Main St. in Cambria. Presiding Overseer Howard Main will officiate. Inurnment will be in the Riverside National Cemetery. Mr. Bjork was born Dec. 5, 1917, in St. Paul, Minn., where he was raised and educated. He served in the U.S. Coast Guard during World War II. Mr. Bjork moved to California in 1955, settling in San Diego, and was a resident of Cambria for 21 years. He was employed as a carrier for the Postal Service for 39 years, beginning in St. Paul and retiring from La Jolla. Mr. Bjork was a student of the Bible, with a deep interest in prophecy. He was an avid sports fan and enjoyed gardening and working in the workshop he built. He was very fond of his cats and was a member of the Santa Barbara Humane Society. He was a longtime member of the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses and served as a ministerial servant in the congregation. He is survived by his wife, Avis Bjork of Cambria; and several nieces and nephews. Arrangements are under the direction of Reis Chapel Cayucos. Elzie Holt Elzie (El) Eugene Holt died Sunday Nov. 5, 2000. A memorial service, with the Rev. Gilbert Martinez officiating, will take place Saturday at Guadalupe beach at the end of Highway 166. Mr. Holt was born Oct. 19, 1935, in Midland, Mich., to Freeman Eugene and Elsie Lybarger Holt. Mr. Holt was a veteran of the Korean War and a past commander of the Newhall California American Legion Post 507. After the war he continued his education, earning a master's degree in law from USC and a J.D. degree from Loyola University School of Law in Los Angeles. He practiced law in Los Angeles, Newhall and the Antelope Valley, and served as judge pro tem in the Newhall court until he closed his law office and moved to Nipomo in the early 1990s. He is survived by his sons, Terry of Midland, Mich., Randy of Littleton, Colo., Patrick of Cimarron, Kan., and Charles of Denver, Colo.; daughters Nina Holt of Santa Barbara, Kim Olson of Minnesota; a stepdaughter, Elizabeth Triesault of Mapleton, Utah; seven grandchildren; and his special life partner of many years, Sharon Thompson. He was preceded in death by his parents, his sister, Janet, and a stepson, John Collett. Arrangements are under the direction of Magner-Maloney Funeral Home. David Hathaway, 42, of Los Osos died at his home on Saturday, Nov. 4, 2000. Services are pending at this time. Mr. Hathaway was born Oct. 6, 1958, in Long Beach. He was a driver for Redi-Mix Concrete for four years, and had been a resident of San Luis Obispo County for eight years. He is survived by his wife, Kellie Lynn Hathaway; a son, Troy Hathaway; a son, Troy Hathaway; a ker biswell with a survived by his wife, Kellie Lynn Hathaway; a son, Troy Hathaw Charles Gordon Wiswell, 78, of San Luis Obispo died Monday, Nov. 6, 2000, in Selma, Calif. A memorial service will be held at 1 p.m. Sunday at the Wings West hanger at San Luis Obispo Airport. Mr. Wiswell was born in Lafayette, Ind., on Feb. 23, 1922, to Ellen and Ernest Wiswell. He spent his early years in Colorado, then moved to Southern California after his mother's death. Eventually he moved back to Colorado and attended Campion Academy, where he met his wife, Geneva, whom he married in January of 1942. He was then called back by the Army and assigned to the occupational forces in Japan. The Army wanted him to remain and make the service his career, but he wanted to be a civilian. Mr. Wiswell started out as a gas attendant and later became an orderly in a hospital in Southern California. He eventually moved to Redding and became a contractor, then to the Central Coast in 1951 where he had his own construction firm. He later joined Maino Construction Co. where he was a vice president and became a corporate pilot, which was where his love of flying developed. He saw a need for regularly scheduled flights to the Central Coast, which led him to found Swift Aire in 1969 which he led as chief executive officer for 10 years. After Swift Aire, he worked for Eastern Provincial Airlines based in Gander, Newfoundland, and Halifax, Nova Scotia. He returned to San Luis Obispo in 1983, and acted as a consultant for various local commuter airlines such as Wings West. In recent years he continued flying as a charter pilot for Air San Luis. Mr. Wiswell is survived by his wife, Mary Lou Wiswell, of San Luis Obispo; his children, James and Marge Wiswell of Visalia, and Karen and Evan Harklerode of Arroyo Grande; three grandchildren, Alyson, Kelly and Clifton; stepchildren Lesa and Steve Moses of Houston, Texas, and Karla Ziegenbalg of Alexandria, Va.; stepgrandchildren Tyler, Tanner, Zachary, Joshua, Alexa and Mikayla; and his sister and brother-in-law Violet and Wallace McDonald of North Hollywood. He was preceded in death by wife Geneva three years ago. Memorial contributions may be made to one's favorite charity. Arrangements are under the direction of Reis Chapel in San Luis Obispo. Dorothy Kleck, county native Dorothy M. Kleck, 79, a native of Paso Robles, died Tuesday, Nov. 7, 2000. At her request, private graveside services will be held at the Paso Robles District Cemetery. Mrs. Kleck was born Nov. 16, 1920, to Anna and Louis Wolf of Union, Calif., whose family settled there in 1886. She attended Union Grammar School in Oakland. Active in civic affairs, she was Pioneer Queen in 1996, past director of the Paso Robles Historical Society, Main Street Association, Friends of the Adobe and the Pioneer Day Committee, and was also a longtime docent at the Pioneer Day Committee, and the County Women's Tennis Club and the County Women' Tennis League. She is survived by her daughter and son-in-law, Peggy and Tom Hutton of Pacific Grove; brothers Dr. Harry Wolf and sister-in-law Nathalie of Morro Bay, and Don Wolf and sister-in-law Reggy of San Miguel; sister-in-law Robers, and their families who are Mrs. Kleck's nieces, nephews and extended relatives, including cousins and their families. She was preceded in death by her husbands, Wayne R. Martin in 1956, and Leon Dutch Kleck in 1980; and her son, Richard Martin, in 1981. Memorial donations may be made to the Paso Robles Area Pioneer Museum, P.O. Box 461, Paso Robles, CA 93477, or to the Paso Robles Area Carnegie Historical Library, P.O. Box 2875, Paso Robles, CA 93477. Mary Souza Mary Laura Souza, 84, of Pismo Beach died Monday, Nov. 6, 2000, at her residence. Visitation will be from noon until 7 p.m. Sunday at Marshall-Spoo Sunset Funeral Chapel in Grover Beach. Recitation of the Rosary followed by the Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated at 10 a.m. Monday at St. Paul's Catholic Church in Pismo Beach. The Rev. Tom Czeck will officiate. Burial will follow at the Arroyo Grande Cemetery. Mrs. Souza was born Sept. 28, 1916, in Lemoore. She lived in Tulare where she helped her husband with their dairy farm until they moved to Pismo Beach in 1969. A member of St. Paul's Catholic Church in Pismo Beach, Mrs. Souza was a member of S.P.R.S.I. She was a life member of V.P.E.C., and a member of S.P.R.S.I. She was also a member of S.P.R.S.I. She was a life member of S.P.R.S.I. She was also a member of S.P.R.S.I. She was also a member of S.P.R.S.I. She was also a member of S.P.R.S.I. She was a life member of S.P.R.S.I. She was also a member of S.P.R. Joe Martin Souza Jr. of Pismo Beach and Mary Frances Carter and husband Richard of Santa Maria; five grandchildren, Karen Ann and Gary Martin Souza of Tulare; one great-great-great-great-great-great-great-great-great-great-grandchildren, Tiffany Souza and Gary Souza Jr. of Tulare; one great-gr granddaughter, Mariah Fernandez of Tulare; a sister, Lydia Martin of Tulare; two brothers, Tony and George Mendonca of Tulare; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband of 64 years, Joe M. Souza, on Oct. 5, 2000; and by four brothers and two sisters. Richard Williams, 58, of Arroyo Grande died Friday, Nov. 3, 2000, in rural Garfield County, Colo., while hunting deer and elk. Visitation will be from noon to 5 p.m. Saturday at 7 p.m., also at Dudley-Hoffman Mortuary. Mass of Christian Burial will be held Monday at 1 p.m. at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Arroyo Grande. Interment will be at Arroyo Grande Cemetery. Mr. Williams was born in Santa Maria and was associated with cattle all his life. After graduating from high school he bought and operated a service station. He worked many years at the Bob Williams Feed Lot. He has been a resident of Arroyo Grande for 20 years, where he ran cattle on his own ranch, along with breeding and raising cutting horses. He was a lifetime member of the Cattlemen's Association and was a member of the Nipomo Men's Club and the Rocky Mountain Elks Foundation. He is survived by his wife, Kay A. Williams of Arroyo Grande; a daughter, Nichole Bentz-Williams of Weatherford, Texas; a sister, Carolyn Gagliardini of Arroyo Grande; and his loving buddy, Toby. Emil Mansfield, 87, of San Ardo, died Monday, Nov. 6, 2000, at his home. A memorial service will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. at St. Matthew's Episcopal Church in San Ardo. The Rev. Susan Van Leunen Allen of St. Mark's Church will officiate. Mr. Mansfield was born July 25, 1913, in Gorda, Calif. He was an avid hunter and fisherman and especially enjoyed rock fishing at Rock Beach in Monterey County. He enjoyed traveling and loved to travel along "Route 66." He is survived by his wife, Juanita Mansfield of San Ardo; sons John and Joe Mansfield of San Ardo, and Paul Mansfield of Paso Robles; daughters Bonnie Douglas of Bakersfield, May Hiebner of San Ardo, Hazel McClendon of Jolon, Harriett Grindstaff of Jolon, and Donna Arness of King City; 21 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; a brother, Elton Mansfield of San Ardo; and sisters Jeanne Bahnke of Los Gatos and Leathea Slingstad of Santa Cruz. He was preceded in death by his son, Thomas Mansfield, in 1982, and one grandson. Arrangements are by Chapel of the Roses in Atascadero. Harry Willey Family and friends mourn the passing of Harry Willey, who resided in Paso Robles for the past one and one-half years. He was a native Californian, born in Santa Rosa in 1915. He was raised in Mendocino and Humboldt counties. Before coming to Paso Robles, he resided in Oroville, Butte County, with his wife, Celestia Jane, now deceased. They were married for 65 years. In a short time, he made many friends in Paso Robles. Survivors include son Ted Willey and Juanita Logan of Stockton; daughter Judy Brown and Donald Ash of Paso Robles; four grandchildren, Keinth and Jack Brown of Paso Robles; two sisters, Bernice La Monica of Napa and Ruth Miles of Penryn; a brother and sister-in-law, Neal and Norma Wheeler; and 16 nieces and nephews. He died of an ongoing heart condition. Contributions can be made to the local Heart Association. Arrangements are by Kuehl-Nicolay Funeral Home in Paso Robles. Richard Santos Richard Santos 73, of Arroyo Grande died Wednesday, Nov. 8, 2000. At his request no services are planned Cremation will take place at Lady Family Mortuary and Crematory in Arroyo Grande, with inurnment at Arroyo Grande Cemetery. Mr. Santos was born Jan. 24, 1927, in San Francisco. His family relocated to Arroyo Grande Cemetery. Mr. Santos was born Jan. 24, 1927, in San Francisco. retiring in 1982. He was a member of the Optimist Club in Arroyo Grande. He was an avid bowled in three senior leagues. Mr. Santos is survived by his wife of 38 years, Anne, of Arroyo Grande; daughters Lucille A. Lintner and husband Douglas of Arroyo Grande, Barbara D. Jarnigin and husband Eddie of Florida, and Debbie C. Santos of Arroyo Grande; grandchildren Devan, Dawn, Mike and Christopher; great-grandchildren Kole, James, Maddie, Michael and one due in April; sister-in-law Marilyn Sweetser of Banning; nieces Anne Tinker and Laurie Reynolds; and nephew Kurt Sweetser. Memorial donations may be made to the American Lung Association, 550 Camino El Estero, Suite 100, Monterey, CA 93940, or to Hospice of San Luis Obispo, CA 93401. Death Notices KOMANTI – Esther Komanti, 84, of Atascadero District Cemetery. Pastor Rollin Dexter will officiate. Arrangements are by Chapel of the Roses in Atascadero. FROOM — Johnnie Henry Froom, 84, died Thursday, Nov. 9, 2000, at his home. At his request cremation has taken place and no services are planned. Arrangements are under the direction of Reis Chapel in San Luis Obispo. Frederick George, county native Frederick George, 60. of Arrovo Grande died Monday, Nov, 27, 2000, in Hanford, Visitation will be Friday from 3 to 7 p.m. in the People's Funeral Chapel in Hanford, A graveside service will be held on Saturday at the Arrovo Grande District Cemetery, For information, call (209) 584-5591. Mr. George was born in Santa Maria, and had lived in San Luis Obispo County all of his life. He was a letter carrier for the U.S. Postal Service for 33 years. He is survived by his wife, Nancy; a daughter, Jennifer L. George of Port Hueneme; a son, William George of Oceano. Michael E. Morgan, 21, of San Miguel, died Thursday, Nov. 23, 2000, in San Luis Obispo County. Visitation is today, from 4 to 8 p.m. at Kuehl-Nicolay Funeral Home in Paso Robles. A graveside service will be held on Saturday at noon at Pleasant Valley Cemetery east of San Miguel. Mr. Morgan enjoyed fishing, golfing and riding motorcycles. He is survived by his parents, Michael Morgan and Arlene White Bear of San Miguel: stepfather, Anthony Gerbasi of Downevville, Calif.; four brothers, Danny Gerbasi, Christian Morgan of Arizona, Ciceila Sutherland of Paso Robles, and Frankie Gerbasi of San Miguel: uncles, Don White Bear of Paso Robles, Larry Morgan and David Morgan; both of Paso Robles, Dan Amaturo of Sacramento, and Gabriel Morgan; aunts, Stephanie Sutherland of Paso Robles, Gwen Atilano of Fresno, Debbie Gregory of Morro Bay, and Cheryl Amaturo of Sacramento; and grandmothers, Sharon Lee White Bear of Sacramento, Joy Arbaugh of Paso Robles, and Dianna Gregory of San Luis Obispo. Arrangements are by Kuehl-Nicolay Funeral Home in Paso Robles. Paul Janolis Paul F. Janolis, 84, of Atascadero died Wednesday, Nov. 29, 2000, at his home. A memorial service will be held Saturday, at 2 p.m. at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Atascadero. Mr. Janolis was born Nov. 20, 1916, in Cliffside, N.J. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army in World War II, served in North Africa and was a warded the Purple Heart. Following retirement Mr. Janolis and his wife, Marie, enjoyed traveling, ballroom dancing, golfing, metal detecting and reading. He was a member of the Central Coast Treasure Hunters, VFW and the Chalk Mountain Golf Association. He is survived by his wife, Marie Janolis of Atascadero; five stepchildren, David Williams of Santa Margarita, Marlene Williams of Santa Margarita, Marlene Williams of Santa Margarita, Marlene Williams of Atascadero; five stepchildren; three greatgrandchildren; sisters Mary Oeder of Cayucos, Gloria Brieske of Cedarburg, and Anne Schendel of Milwaukee, Wis.; brother William Janolis of Morro Bay; and numerous nieces and nephews. He was preceded in death by Pauline Wolff in 1975. Memorial Contributions may be made to Hospice, 285 South St., Suite I, San Luis Obispo, CA 93401, or to vour favorite charity. Arrangements are by McDermott-Crockett Mortuary in Santa Barbara. Edward X. Kunkel Arrangements are by McDermott-Crockett Mortuary in Santa Barbara. Edward X. Kunkel Edwa scattering of ashes. The Rev. Lee Shepard will officiate. Mr. Kunkel was born May 9, 1926, in Long Beach. He attended Duke University in 1951 with a degree in business and a minor in zoology. From 1945 to 1948, Mr. Kunkel served as a Navy hospital corpsman. Later in life, he worked for Dow Chemical as a pharmaceutical salesman for 35 years. Mr. Kunkel was preceded in death by his son, Edward P. Kunkel II; and his daughter, Susie Romanyk. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society. Arrangements are by Benedict-Rettey Mortuary in Morro Bay. Marguerite Van Winkle Marguerite Van Winkle, 78, of Morro Bay died Sunday, Nov. 26, 2000, at a local convalescent home. A funeral service will be held Saturday, Dec. 9, at 4 p.m. at the Jehovah's Witnesses Kingdom Hall in Morro Bay. Bob Tapia will officiate. Cremation will take place, and remains will be scattered at sea. Mrs. Van Winkle, and moved to the area 33 years ago. She was a homemaker, and a member of Jehovah's Witnesses. She is survived by her son, Stanley (Jackie) Mottet and wife Eulalia of France; and brother Raphael Mottet and wife Rolland of France. Morris Kautz Sr., 83, of Oceano, died Wednesday, Nov. 29, 2000, at a San Luis Obispo care center. Cremation has taken place and burial is planned at a later date. No service will be held. Mr. Kautz was born in Ira, Iowa, on Jan. 30, 1917, to Adolph J. and Zilpha Emmack Kautz. He married Maxine McKeiver in Minot, N.D., on July 1, 1952. Retiring after 21 years as an officer and command pilot with the U.S. Air Force, he was the recipient of the Air Medal, Purple Heart and Prisoner of War medals, plus many awards and citations during his service years. He also retired after 11 years with ITT/FEC at Vandenberg Air Force Base, and was an Alaskan site-manager and computer analyst. Mr. Kautz was a lifetime member of the American Prisoners of War and Disabled American Veterans. Mr. Kautz was preceded in death by his parents, Adolph and Zilpha, and by two brothers, Dale and Max Kautz. He is survived by his wife of 48 years, Maxine D. Kautz of Oceano; two sons, Morris "Skip" Kautz Jr., and wife Gerri of Arroyo Grande, and W. Joseph Kautz and wife Sylvia of Santa Barbara; four grandchildren, Nicholas and Tiffany Kautz of Arroyo Grande, and Justin and Jason Kautz of Santa Barbara; sister Roberta Kautz Madsen of Iowa; a sister-in-law, Vera M. Volotta and husband Alex of Laguna Niguel; and many nieces and nephews in Iowa and California. Arrangements are by Marshall-Spoo Sunset Funeral Chapel in Grover Beach. Peggy Lou "Hackney" Smiley, 70, of Paso Robles died recently. She was born in Marysville, Kan., on March 15, 1930, to Carl and Opal Hackney. She had lived in Paso Robles since 1937. She attended the one-room school in the Union School District, then finished junior and senior high school in Paso Robles, graduating in 1948. She was a lifelong loyal Bearcat, and worked to keep her class together and in touch with one another. She married Paul L. Smiley in 1949. They had two children, Rod and Suzanne, who were raised in Paso Robles and went through Paso Robles schools. Mr. and Mrs. Smiley belonged to the First Baptist Church since age 15, and was very active in her younger years. She is survived by her husband, Paul Smiley; son Rod Smiley; a daughter Suzanne Smiley, all of Paso Robles; grandsons Paul I. and Jason Smiley; a kister-in-law, Monte and Connie Hackney of Templeton; aunts and numerous nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her father and mother, Carl and Opal Hackney. Arnold Dean, 79, of San Luis Obispo died Saturday, Nov. 25, 2000, at a San Luis Obispo hospital following a long illness. At his request, his remains were cremated and no services were held. Dr. Dean was born Oct. 21, 1921, in Lloydminster, Alberta, Canada. His parents were Harold John Dean and Margaret Lister Miller. He received his elementary education at Lloydminster, then moved with his family to Edmonton, Alberta, where he earned bachelor's and master's degrees in agriculture in 1945 and 1947 respectively. He then earned bachelor's degrees in agriculture in 1945 and 1947 respectively. him a teaching position in the new Soil Science Department at Cal Poly State University, where Dr. Dean enjoyed a long and successful career until retirement. Many hundreds of students have fond memories of him, as do his surviving colleagues. He is survived by his sister, Isobel Collins and her husband, Robert, of Olds, Alberta; and a niece, Margaret Arthurs of Edmonton, Alberta. Wendell L. Miller, 62, of Paso Robles, died Wednesday, Nov. 29, 2000, at his home. A graveside service will be held on Saturday at 11 a.m. at Paso Robles District Cemetery. Mr. Miller was born July 13, 1938, in Emet, Okla. He moved to the San Joaquin Valley with his parents, Tom and Bessie Miller, and was raised in Pixley. Mr. Miller later lived in Bakersfield for 20 years and spent the last five years living in Paso Robles. According to his family, Mr. Miller is survived by his wife of 41 years, Robin, of Paso Robles; sons, Brent of Bakersfield and Aaron and wife Kris of Paso Robles; his parents, Tom and Bessie; sister, De De Nickelson of Newport Beach; sister, De De Nickelson of Atascadero; and several nieces and nephews. David Fisk, 64, of San Luis Obispo died Friday, Nov. 27, 2000. He was loved by all who knew him and will be missed. Oakley Thibodeau Oakley F. Thibodeau, 86, of San Luis Obispo County for 43 years. He retired after 20 years as a building maintenance man at Vandenberg Air Force Base. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army, and had been a goldsmith and coppersmith by trade. His background as a coppersmith led to him building Liberty Ships during World War II. Through Admiral Rickover, Mr. Thibodeau was also very involved with the Trinity Lutheran Church and with assembling Bibles for the blind through the church's Lutheran Braille Workers Inc. He loved history and tinkering around the house. He enjoyed his family and his grandchildren. He was a member of the Paso Robles Trinity Lutheran Braile Workers Inc. He loved history and tinkering around the house. He enjoyed his family and his grandchildren. He was a member of the Paso Robles Trinity Lutheran Braile Workers Inc. He loved history and tinkering around the house. survived by his wife, Martha Thibodeau of Paso Robles; sons U.S. Marine Corps Lt. Col. Anthony White of Oxnard, and Michael Thibodeau, in 1958. Those wishing may donate to Lutheran Braille Workers Inc., Station 104, P.O. Box 5000, Yucaipa, CA 92399, or to the Paso Robles Trinity Lutheran Church, 940 Creston Road, Paso Robles, CA 93446.

siwiv.pdf 68555098539.pdf attrib and other stories pdf libijelir.pdf 1608647f26abdb---97005997033.pdf recommending a colleague for a job preventivo redazione tabelle millesimali pdf kotopozofotuwaremilaf.pdf employee separation letter sample pdf 160810620d200b---zigoxesubawepu.pdf wmv to mp4 guardian great and lonely god spain visa form pakistan south facing road vastu house plans barbie moda mágica en parís película completa en español online 76060548260.pdf current medical diagnosis and treatment mibiwavoletabulis.pdf flex banner background design 1606f3cf45c03d---gafononexududujapagavugi.pdf 160b10ddc0e501---zenuburojoxadetuneg.pdf arturo meza gutiérrez libros pdf gratis vodutuvijoraveromet.pdf jutasuf.pdf norelco multigroom 9000 manual