JJ Lawhorn - "Answer To No One"The lead track from 2012's Declaration of Independence, this track is not only Ford's personal philosophy, but also his business one, as well. Among the collaborators listed on the song is Shannon Houchins, his partner at his label, Average Joe's Entertainment.Granted, this song comparing the charms of a woman to the culinary appeal of one of the best-selling breakfast items out there wasn't going to notch any song of the year victories for Ford, but this track from his 2010 project of the same name doesn't need to be over-thought too much. Rather, the song is just pure fun -- featuring a dynamite vocal from the underrated James Otto.3. Colt Ford feat. John Michael Montgomery - "Ride Through The Country"The title track from his 2008 debut album, Ford tips his hat to the Georgia upbringing that he enjoyed. This song served as the perfect introduction to a man and his sound -- featuring (depending on which version you hear) John Michael Montgomery, Colt Ford, and the legendary Ronnie Dunn.6. Colt Ford feat. Rizzi Myers - "Bad Day"Critics will tell you that Colt Ford isn't exactly what one would call a singer -- and perhaps more of a personality than a vocalist. However, that statement is far from the truth. This standout break-up track from 2017's Love Hope Faith is a great example of just what Ford is capable of as an artist. The track also includes a soulful performance from pop singer Rizzi Myers. If you think you "know" Colt Ford, listen to this one. You might be surprised!4. Colt Ford feat. Craig Morgan - "She Likes To Ride In Trucks"There's a sentimental side that comes out in many of Colt Ford's songs over the years. That is very much true on this track from 2011's Every Chance I Get, an emotional tip of the hat to a daughter who is growing up way too quick. The song was the perfect one for Craig Morgan -- a fellow devoted father -- to make an appearance on, with its heartfelt lyrics.2. Colt Ford feat. Jerrod Niemann - "Crickets"One of the more enjoyable songs in the Colt Ford song catalog, this light and breezy song about a couple sharing a special moment together stands as one of his career highlights. Guest-starring on the track is Jerrod Niemann, who sounds like he is having a blast in describing the perfect night. (feat. JJ Lawhorn) Let me tell you a little story 'bout how I was raised Every day work, every day pray God, family, friends, yeah everybody's friends A winner never quits, and a quitter never wins Helps folks in need, don't fall for greed A jealous man is weak so think before you speak If you love 'em let 'em know, if you hate let it go Fast can be fun, but sometimes you need slow God is all good, the devil is so real So listen up y'all 'cause this is how I feel I won't back up, I don't back down I've been raised up to stand my ground Take my job but not my guns Tax my check till I ain't got none Except for the good Lord up above I answer to no one See I'm a flag flyin' bible totin' son of a gun Yeah I'm hell on the hard just a rebel on the run Scared don't know it, fear don't feel it The truth is the light, sometimes you gotta fight Good beats bad, right beats wrong I'm a ball room preacher and this is my song I'm climbing for the top, representin' for the country I'm the people's champ right out of their camp Shotgun toter, republican voter Hank Jr supporter, let's protect our border To hell with anyone who don't believe in the USA 'Cause this is what I say I won't back up, I don't back down I've been raised up above I answer to no one Give me my right to vote My right to tote the weapon of my choice Don't censor my voice Hate me if you want or love me if you can If the truth is what you want then you found your man I ain't backin' down, I ain't backin' up If you think like I think, man crank it on up I won't back up, I don't back down I've been raised up to stand my ground Take my job but not my guns Tax my check till I ain't got none Except for the good Lord up above I answer to no one I answer to no one Ford Colt Chords Ford Colt Chords Let me tell ya lil story bout how Iz raised Everyday work, everyday prayGod, family, friends Ya, everybody sinsA winner never quits and a quitter never winsHelp folks in need, don't fall for greedA jealous man is weak, so think before you speakIf you love em let em know, if you hate let em goFast can be fun, but sometimes you need slowGod is all good, the Devil is so realSo listen up y'all cuz this is how I feelI won't back up, I don't back downI've been raised up to stand my groundTake my job, but not my gunsTax my check till I ain't got noneCept for the good Lord up aboveI answer to no oneSee I'm a flag flying Bible totin son of a gunYeah, I'm hell on the heart and a rebel on the runScared?
